

BROOKLYN ADVERTISEMENTS.

Purity of Tone,
simplicity of action and beauty of case are some of the qualities possessed by the "Ideal"

PLAYER PIANO.

Our large and ever-increasing sales of this instrument are proof positive that these qualities are appreciated by the music-loving public.

Piano and Piano Player in one case—$550 to $700.

Call or write for Catalogue "B"

Anderson Pianos,
very popular, $250

Hazeltown Pianos,
Gabler Pianos,
Krell Auto-Grand Pianos,
"Ideal" Piano Players.

Some bargains in used Pianos and Piano Players.

Easy payments or cash as desired.

Anderson & Co.

370 Fulton St. (near Smith St.), Brooklyn.

SMOKY FIREPLACES

MADE TO DRAW OR NO CHARGE.

References—Wm. W. Astor, Jos. H. Choate, Whitaker Reid, and many other prominent people.
JOHN WILLIAMS,
"The Astor Experts."

215 Fulton St., Brooklyn, N. Y. Telephone 1411 Main.
This advertisement appears Sunday and Monday

POLITICAL NOTES.

Just at the moment the following figures
may be of interest:

NEW YORK CITY'S VOTE FOR GOVERNORS.
Van Wyck (Dem.) over Roosevelt (Rep.), 1905, 84,010.
Staggett (Dem.) over Odell (Rep.), 1904, 44,263.
Odell (Rep.) over Odell (Rep.), 1902, 122,487.
Herrick (Dem.) over Higgins (Rep.), 1901, 80,131.
REPUBLICAN PLURALITIES ABOVE THE BROWN.
Roosevelt in 1898, 101,709.
Odell in 1900, 155,399.
Odell in 1902, 122,487.
Higgins in 1904, 160,591.

Ex-Gov. B. B. Odell, Jr., it is stated, believed that Louis F. Goodell should not again have sought the Republican nomination for State Senator for what is colloquially known as the Orange district and so told Mr. Good-sell. Mr. Goodsell, however, insisted on it, saying that inasmuch as in 1904 he had lost Kohl, his Democratic opponent, by 2,947 he could easily win again this year.

"I should have had to be dreadfully hard up," said a lawyer, an old line Democrat, "to have taken that job from Hearst as David B. Hill did."

The speaker referred to Mr. Hill's representing Mr. Hearst before the Court of Appeals on Tuesday. He continued:
"Hearst has roundly abused Alton B.
Parker and every other Democrat ever had, but then Mr. Hill was never known to have great tubes of red blood in his veins."

Speaking of Mr. Hearst and Mr. Hill a particularly interesting bit may be recalled that at the time Mr. Hearst's newspapers were selling President McKinley and printing cartoons and matter which were considered criminally libelous Mr. Hearst became somewhat nervous and sent for Mr. Hill to come to New York to see him and as a lawyer he was the personal attorney of Mr. Hearst.

Arthur Brisbane was present at the conference between Mr. Hearst and Mr. Hill.
All of the alleged criminally libelous matter was submitted to Mr. Hill, and as a lawyer he gave it to be his opinion that Mr. Hearst could be prosecuted by the Federal authorities and he advised an entire change of policy.

"Why do you print such stuff, anyway, Mr.
Hearst?" asked Mr. Hill.

"Governor," interrupted Mr. Brisbane, before Mr. Hearst could answer, "as I understand this case Mr. Hearst sent for you to see how we could be kept out of jail. He didn't send for you to tell him how to run his newspapers. We don't need any advice from you how to run Mr. Hearst's newspapers.
Just you tell us how to keep out of jail, and that is all that is all you are needed for on this occasion."

"That's a mighty smart man, a mighty able man," said ex-Gov. Hill later, speaking of Mr. Brisbane.

On a certain occasion in the first Cleveland administration when a Massachusetts clergyman in a sermon repeated a slander about President Cleveland, the late Col. Lamont, then Mr. Cleveland's secretary, was in quick communication with the United States District Attorney for the district in which the clergyman had uttered the slander and that clergyman would have been prosecuted for criminal libel before sundown had he not promised to retract his slander on the following Sunday.

To be explicit in telling this little tale the clergyman uttered the slander on Sunday morning. So quickly did Col. Lamont act that on the following morning, twenty-four hours later, the clergyman had subjected himself to and said that he had merely repeated in his sermon what glib gossips and vicious people had told him and the promise for the retraction had been given. On the following Sunday the clergyman carried out his agreement.

Ex-United States Marshal Louis F. Payn of Columbia county says there is no truth in the reports to the effect that the Republican leaders of all the counties are not united strong and hearty for Hughes. There have been whispers of sullessness on the part of Republican leaders in certain counties of the State since the Saratoga convention for the reason that quite a number of Republicans believed that ex-Governor Frank S. Black should have been nominated for Governor.
Mr. Black, however, put a quietus on that by saying that in no sense was he a candidate and his refusal to allow the use of his name ended the Black boom.

Mr. Payn has been in Republican politics in New York State since 1860, and he said at the Holland House last night:

"Personal feeling should have no weight in the campaign. If Republicans in my judgment are good Republicans and you will see that on election day they will stand by the ticket from sunrise to sunset."

"Most politicians," said an old timer at the Manhattan Club, "are mental cowards.
They cannot help being mental cowards any more than a lawyer cannot help being a self-interest makes the politician a mental coward while the law's delays turn the most concentrated and direct legal mind into a laced, a halting and a procrastinating idiot."

It has been whispered at Mr. Hearst's

BROOKLYN ADVERTISEMENTS.

Mathew's Sons
Sixty-nine Years Ago We Set the Money Saving Pace.

$2.25 Untrimmed Silk Velvet Hats at 95c.

This will help fill the special demand for velvet Hats. There are large Hats, medium and large Flats, with full crowns, a dozen new shapes to select from, mostly black and some colors. None sent C. O. D.

Women's $4 to $5 Shoes, Made in Brooklyn, $2.40.

We are bound not to mention the factory, because that wouldn't be fair to the shoe shops that sell these Shoes for more than our Monday price. This factory makes what are considered the highest grade Shoes in the world.

Best leather, best finish throughout, sizes 3 to 7, widths A, B, C, D and E.

For Lace Curtain Critics, $1.69 Pair.

White Nottingham and American made Arabian—but they have the beauty, freshness and charm that Americans like. Suppose they did cost as much as the imported that sell for $2.50 a pair. It's our right as Americans to sell them Monday for $1.69.

You'll Pull the Wool Over Your Eyes

When you get under these Blankets. We haven't talked much about our all-wool Blanket Stock here lately—didn't need to—when the rush was on for the 23c.—the $15.00 a pair followed in sympathy.

But on Monday and Tuesday we will conduct a Special Sale, for instance—California wool, $5.00

plain white and blue borders, and all wool in white, gray and plaids in different combinations, 72x84 inches, 5 LBS OF FINE CARDED WOOL

Your Initial on Delicate Tumblers, 5c Ea

Ribbon and Flower Wreathed Tumblers, 5c Ea

These are highly polished and are as inviting
as if they cost a dollar each. Will deliver in turn, according to purchase, during the week. No
C. O. D. or mail orders.

Imported Heavy Enamel Coffee Pots

Made in one piece, will outlast a half dozen ordinary Coffee Pots and are easily kept spick and span.

Your choice of any size in white, regular 62c.
value, for.....29c

Choice of any size in blue, regular 75c. value,
for.....38c

2-Piece Cut Glass Sugar and Cream Set, $1.89.

These are similar to the sets we sold two weeks ago. You will doubt your eyes when you see them. The two pieces.....$1.89

White and Gold Dinner Sets, $5.98.

100 pieces of best American porcelain, handsome shapes and very dainty. It's a $12.98 set.
None C. O. D. Delivery during the week.

READING A BABY'S FACE.

Expressions Which May Be Attributed to Physical Causes.

The face of a child is a canvas on which
are painted in marked lines the ever varying conditions of its delicate organism.

A writer in Good Housekeeping says that a healthy, sleeping child presents an expression of absolute repose, with eyelids completely closed, and lips but slightly parted. There may be a faint shadow of breathing, but no apparent motions of the nostrils.

Incomplete closure of the eyelids, showing the whites of the eyes during sleep,
is symptomatic of many acute and chronic ailments, and, at least, shows that the balance of health is disturbed.

Movements of the nostrils point to difficulty more or less, in getting breath, and
are characteristic of all diseases involving
the larynx, bronchial tubes and lungs.

Contracted brows indicate pain in the head,
while a tightly drawn upper lip points to
pain in the abdomen.

On general principles, it is asserted that
the appearance of the upper third of the
face indicates the condition of the brain,
the middle third that of the chest, and the lower third that of the organs contained in the abdominal cavity.

Non-Inflammable Wood.

From Daily Consular and Trade Reports.

Consul Murphy reports from Bordeaux expertise in the great public square, the quincennes where is to be held from May to October next
the International Maritime Exposition in commemoration of the hundredth anniversary of Fulton's successful application of steam to navigation.

Warned by the great damage caused by the recent fire at the Milan exposition, in which valuable paintings, tapestries and other works of art
were destroyed, the deputy commissioner general devoted much of his time to the study and investigation of the different methods of rendering wood,
paper, silk, cotton and woven stuffs non-inflammable. Of all the formulae submitted he decided to experiment with the following: Sulphate of
ammonia, 15 grams; borate of soda, 15 grams;
boric acid, 8 grams; and water, 100 grams.

The exhibition consisted of treating pine shavings,
wood, paper and cotton fibre with this preparation
and after thorough drying, applying the fire test.

A large pile of shavings, pine shavings and wood
was set on fire, and in the blaze were thrown shavings and sticks of wood impregnated with this
"infallible" preparation.

When the fire had exhausted itself the impregnated shavings and wood were found to be simply blackened and charred; they gave out no flame. Paper and cotton fibre treated with the same solution when exposed to the flames combusted very slowly without a blaze. So successful and conclusive seemed the demonstration that Mr.
Morlet gave orders that all wood and timber used in the preparation from receptacles strapped to their backs in the manner of an American fire extinguisher. In addition to the precautionary measures adopted the fire department were placed in the exhibition buildings under close and constant inspection. The buildings now being constructed are on the river front, so that abundant supplies
of water will always be available.

The Humpback Salmon.

From the Castle Rock Advocate.

Sam Cornelius caught a genuine hump-
back salmon in his net Monday morning.

This species is rare here, but few having been taken in the past. On the Alaskan coast they are caught and canned by the millions, but they seldom venture this far south.

The specimen, which was on exhibition at
the market, is a very unattractive one, and we would hesitate about eating any of it.

The fish was about 10 feet long, and the extending beyond the dorsal fin, making a hump much like a camel's. The head in long and pointed, with a mouth and teeth
like a wolf's, the whole makeup constituting a very repulsive looking fish.

Two Taboos.

From Los Angeles News.

A regulation posted in the Royal Courts of Justice in London states that "smoking and dogs shall not be allowed in the building."

A Lucky Coincidence.

From Harper's Weekly.

Landryman—I regret to tell you, sir, that one of
your pants is lost.

Customer—But here I have just paid you twelve
cents for doing it up.

Landryman—Quite right, sir, we laundered it before we lost it.

From Harper's Weekly.

"What day was I born on, mother?"

"Thursday, child."

"Wasn't that fortunate! It's your day 'at home.'"

Two Taboos.

From Los Angeles News.

A regulation posted in the Royal Courts of Justice in London states that "smoking and dogs shall
not be allowed in the building."

From Harper's Weekly.

Landryman—I regret to tell you, sir, that one of
your pants is lost.

Customer—But here I have just paid you twelve
cents for doing it up.

Landryman—Quite right, sir, we laundered it before we lost it.

From Harper's Weekly.

"What day was I born on, mother?"

"Thursday, child."

"Wasn't that fortunate! It's your day 'at home.'"

From Harper's Weekly.

Landryman—I regret to tell you, sir, that one of
your pants is lost.

Customer—But here I have just paid you twelve
cents for doing it up.

Landryman—Quite right, sir, we laundered it before we lost it.

From Harper's Weekly.

"What day was I born on, mother?"

BROOKLYN ADVERTISEMENTS.

$18 Brussels $13.98
Rugs,
Size 9x12 feet.
Beautiful Carpets
made, laid and lined Free.

$2.25 Untrimmed Silk Velvet Hats at 95c.

This will help fill the special demand for velvet Hats. There are large Hats, medium and large Flats, with full crowns, a dozen new shapes to select from, mostly black and some colors. None sent C. O. D.

Women's $4 to $5 Shoes, Made in Brooklyn, $2.40.

We are bound not to mention the factory, because that wouldn't be fair to the shoe shops that sell these Shoes for more than our Monday price. This factory makes what are considered the highest grade Shoes
in the world.

Best leather, best finish throughout, sizes 3 to 7, widths A, B, C, D and E.

For Lace Curtain Critics, $1.69 Pair.

White Nottingham and American made Arabian—but they have the beauty, freshness and charm that Americans like. Suppose they did cost as much as the imported that sell for $2.50 a pair. It's our right as Americans to sell them Monday for $1.69.

You'll Pull the Wool Over Your Eyes

When you get under these Blankets. We haven't talked much about our all-wool Blanket Stock here lately—didn't need to—when the rush was on for the 23c.—the $15.00 a pair followed in sympathy.

But on Monday and Tuesday we will conduct a Special Sale, for instance—California wool, $5.00

plain white and blue borders, and all wool in white, gray and plaids in different combinations, 72x84 inches, 5 LBS OF FINE CARDED WOOL

Your Initial on Delicate Tumblers, 5c Ea

Ribbon and Flower Wreathed Tumblers, 5c Ea

These are highly polished and are as inviting
as if they cost a dollar each. Will deliver in turn, according to purchase, during the week. No
C. O. D. or mail orders.

Imported Heavy Enamel Coffee Pots

Made in one piece, will outlast a half dozen
ordinary Coffee Pots and are easily kept spick and span.

Your choice of any size in white, regular 62c.
value, for.....29c

Choice of any size in blue, regular 75c. value,
for.....38c

2-Piece Cut Glass Sugar and Cream Set, $1.89.

These are similar to the sets we sold two weeks
ago. You will doubt your eyes when you see them. The two pieces.....$1.89

White and Gold Dinner Sets, $5.98.

100 pieces of best American porcelain, handsome shapes and very dainty. It's a $12.98 set.
None C. O. D. Delivery during the week.

READING A BABY'S FACE.

Expressions Which May Be Attributed to Physical Causes.

The face of a child is a canvas on which
are painted in marked lines the ever varying conditions of its delicate organism.

A writer in Good Housekeeping says that a
healthy, sleeping child presents an expression of absolute repose, with eyelids
completely closed, and lips but slightly
parted. There may be a faint shadow of breathing, but no apparent motions of the
nostrils.

Incomplete closure of the eyelids, showing the whites of the eyes during sleep,
is symptomatic of many acute and chronic
ailments, and, at least, shows that the
balance of health is disturbed.

Movements of the nostrils point to difficulty more or less, in getting breath, and
are characteristic of all diseases involving
the larynx, bronchial tubes and lungs.

Contracted brows indicate pain in the head,
while a tightly drawn upper lip points to
pain in the abdomen.

On general principles, it is asserted that
the appearance of the upper third of the
face indicates the condition of the brain,
the middle third that of the chest, and the
lower third that of the organs contained
in the abdominal cavity.

Non-Inflammable Wood.

From Daily Consular and Trade Reports.

Consul Murphy reports from Bordeaux expertise in the great public square, the quincennes where is to be held from May to October next
the International Maritime Exposition in commemoration of the hundredth anniversary of Fulton's successful application of steam to navigation.

Warned by the great damage caused by the
recent fire at the Milan exposition, in which valuable paintings, tapestries and other works of art
were destroyed, the deputy commissioner general
devoted much of his time to the study and investigation of the different methods of rendering wood,
paper, silk, cotton and woven stuffs non-inflammable. Of all the formulae submitted he decided to experiment with the following: Sulphate of
ammonia, 15 grams; borate of soda, 15 grams;
boric acid, 8 grams; and water, 100 grams.

The exhibition consisted of treating pine shavings,
wood, paper and cotton fibre with this preparation
and after thorough drying, applying the fire test.

A large pile of shavings, pine shavings and wood
was set on fire, and in the blaze were thrown shav-
ings and sticks of wood impregnated with this
"infallible" preparation.

When the fire had exhausted itself the impregnated shavings and wood were found to be
simply blackened and charred; they gave out no
flame. Paper and cotton fibre treated with the same solution when exposed to the flames com-
busted very slowly without a blaze. So successful
and conclusive seemed the demonstration that Mr.
Morlet gave orders that all wood and timber used
in the preparation from receptacles strapped to their
backs in the manner of an American fire extinguisher. In addition to the precautionary measures adopted the fire department were placed in
the exhibition buildings under close and constant inspection. The buildings now being constructed
are on the river front, so that abundant supplies
of water will always be available.

The Humpback Salmon.

From the Castle Rock Advocate.

Sam Cornelius caught a genuine hump-
back salmon in his net Monday morning.

This species is rare here, but few having been taken in the past. On the Alaskan coast they are caught and canned by the millions, but they seldom venture this far south.

The specimen, which was on exhibition at
the market, is a very unattractive one, and
we would hesitate about eating any of it.

The fish was about 10 feet long, and the
extending beyond the dorsal fin, making a hump much like a camel's. The head in
long and pointed, with a mouth and teeth
like a wolf's, the whole makeup constituting a
very repulsive looking fish.

Two Taboos.

From Los Angeles News.

A regulation posted in the Royal Courts of Justice in London states that "smoking and dogs shall
not be allowed in the building."

From Harper's Weekly.

Landryman—I regret to tell you, sir, that one of
your pants is lost.

Customer—But here I have just paid you twelve
cents for doing it up.

Landryman—Quite right, sir, we laundered it before we lost it.

From Harper's Weekly.

"What day was I born on, mother?"

"Thursday, child."

"Wasn't that fortunate! It's your day 'at home.'"

From Harper's Weekly.

Landryman—I regret to tell you, sir, that one of
your pants is lost.

Customer—But here I have just paid you twelve
cents for doing it up.

Landryman—Quite right, sir, we laundered it before we lost it.

From Harper's Weekly.

"What day was I born on, mother?"

"Thursday, child."

"Wasn't that fortunate! It's your day 'at home.'"

From Harper's Weekly.

Landryman—I regret to tell you, sir, that one of
your pants is lost.

Customer—But here I have just paid you twelve
cents for doing it up.

Landryman—Quite right, sir, we laundered it before we lost it.

From Harper's Weekly.

"What day was I born on, mother?"

"Thursday, child."